University Preparatory
Prom 2017

Dress Code Guidelines
Why do we have a dress code?

- Staff and Administration will be enforcing the prom dress code for the 2017 prom.
- We want you to have fun, but we also want you dressed appropriately.
- Each student should make sure their attire meets dress code BEFORE the night of prom.
- It is the responsibility of each University Prep student to be informed of and to follow these guidelines.
- If you are dressed inappropriately, you will be sent home.
Guideline #1: No Plunging Necklines: Necklines of female students must not plunge lower than the top of the breasts.

Inappropriate:

Appropriate:
Guideline #2: Backless Dresses:

Backless Dresses must be no lower than the naval (belly button)

Inappropriate:

Appropriate:
Guideline #3:

Length:

Dress length should be no higher than mid thigh (fingertip length)

Inappropriate:

Appropriate:
Guideline #4:
Slits:
Dress may not have a slit that exceeds mid thigh (fingertip length)

Inappropriate:

Appropriate:
Guideline #5: Cut-outs:
Dresses may not have cut-out midriffs

Inappropriate:

Appropriate:
Guideline #6:
No See-Through Fabrics:
Dresses may not be made of see-through or nude looking fabrics like tulle, netting, or Illusion

All Inappropriate:
Final Guidelines:
Cover-ups do not work in lieu of dress code:

The dress must meet dress code on its own without any cover-ups.

No undergarments should be visible:

Pinning will not be allowed to bring dress up to code (safety pins).
Inappropriate:

More Examples:
Appropriate:
More Examples:
Dance Contract

Pictures of dresses must be attached

• You must be wearing the dress, not a picture of it on the hangar.
• It must show the complete dress.
• If the dress is backless, has a cutout, or has a low back, attach a picture of you wearing the dress from both the front and the back.
Questions About a Dress?

See Mrs. Hatcher BEFORE Prom night

- Be sure to take pictures of the front, back, and sides of you in the dress so that there are no surprises on prom night.